

COLONIAL TRILOGY VIII

THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS
IN THE STATE OF OHIO

Presents

A TRILOGY OF TRILOGIES

NINE ESSAYS BY
WALNUT HILLS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
SUBMITTED FOR
THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS
SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

Copyright 2002

by

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Ohio

Printed in the United States of America

INTRODUCTION COLONIAL TRILOGY VIII

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Ohio has established a prize for the best essay on Early American History for history students at our pet beneficiary: Walnut Hills High School.

Walnut Hills, the Alma Mater of a number of our Warriors, is a public college preparatory school, with, as we believe, a national reputation for scholarship. We are pleased to present the products of our most recent contest as valuable contributions to our Early American History.

Frank G. Davis
Editor

CONTESTANTS

Jonathan Lipps

The Evolution of Piracy

Michael Koucky

The Effects of the European Enlightenment on Early American Revolutionary Ideas and Literature

Julie Griff

The Influence of Privateering on the Colony of Roanoke

Leslie Messer

Abigail Adams: A Woman Ahead of Her Time

Emily Longenecker

The Chesapeake Bay: Colonies of Different Pasts, One Future

Ellen Stedtefeld

The Influence of the Great Law

Laura Boesch

A Letter From Boston 48

Jonah Paul

Roger Williams and the Founding of Rhode Island

Ryan Long

A Revolution is Just a Nice Name for "Rebellion"