

Society of Colonial Wars in Ohio

About the Society

The Society of Colonial Wars was founded in New York in 1892 for the purpose of furthering the interest in, and study of, America's Colonial history for the period between the settlement of Jamestown, Virginia on May 13, 1607 and the battle of Lexington on April 19, 1775.

Membership Requirements:

Any male person eighteen years of age or older, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the General and every constituent State Society, provided he is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor: Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor, or marine, or as a privateersman, under authority of any of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, during the period from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775.

Membership is by invitation. If you are interested, please contact the Ohio Society:
